The George Washington University Library

Special Collections Division "I'm an old woman, my dear, I know my sex."

Throughout Mt. Vernon's history, she has known the purpose of her existence and how to achieve it.

Times have changed, and although Mt. Vernon is old, she is young in heart and spirit.

On the Occasion of Mount Vernon's Centennial, 1975

A centennial,
Like one who conquers all,
Succeeds
By consummating each year
One hundred times over
And conceives, therewithal,
A celebration
Of life and self most dear.

A Century, therefore, is not
By dreams alone
Breeched into a second birth;
Rather
It is fashioned by one hundred bittersweet
Schemes
Into a fecund girth,
The result of countless
Les affaires de coeur
That elevate all expectations
In parentheses
D'amour.

A centennial, thus, like two lovers joined, Is sweetly-hyphenated And Prolonged.

Mount Vernon College

1875-1975 the First 100 Years.

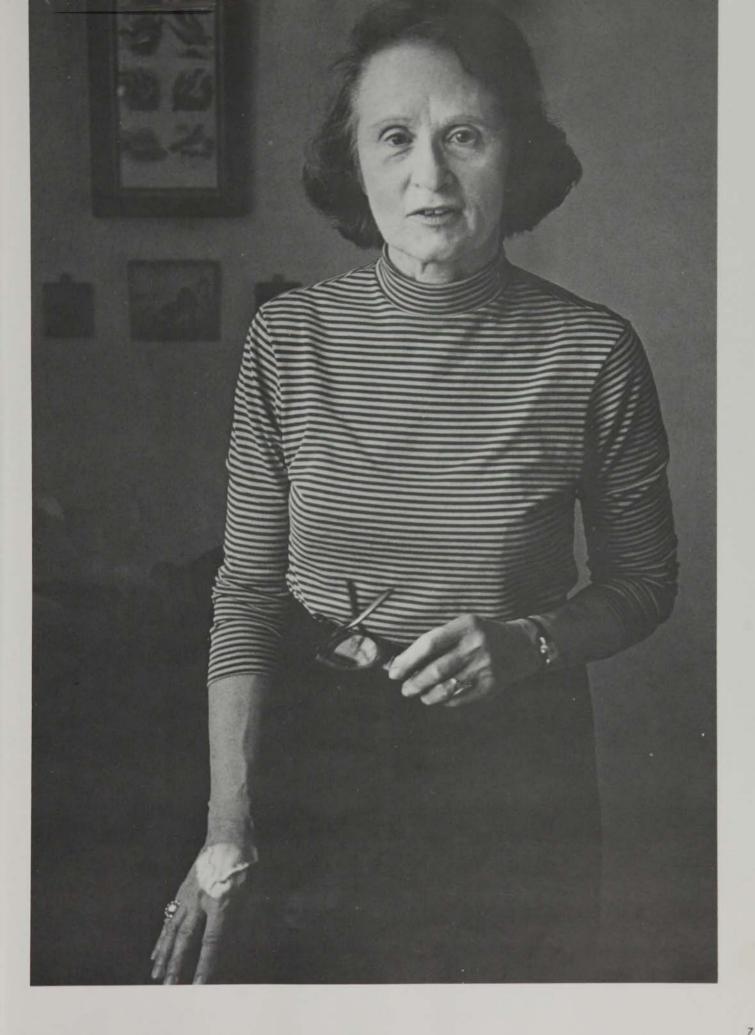

Dedication

This yearbook is dedicated to one of the most responsible, amiable, and dependable people known to our community. We dedicate this historic yearbook to a very special woman —

Miss Helen Boyden

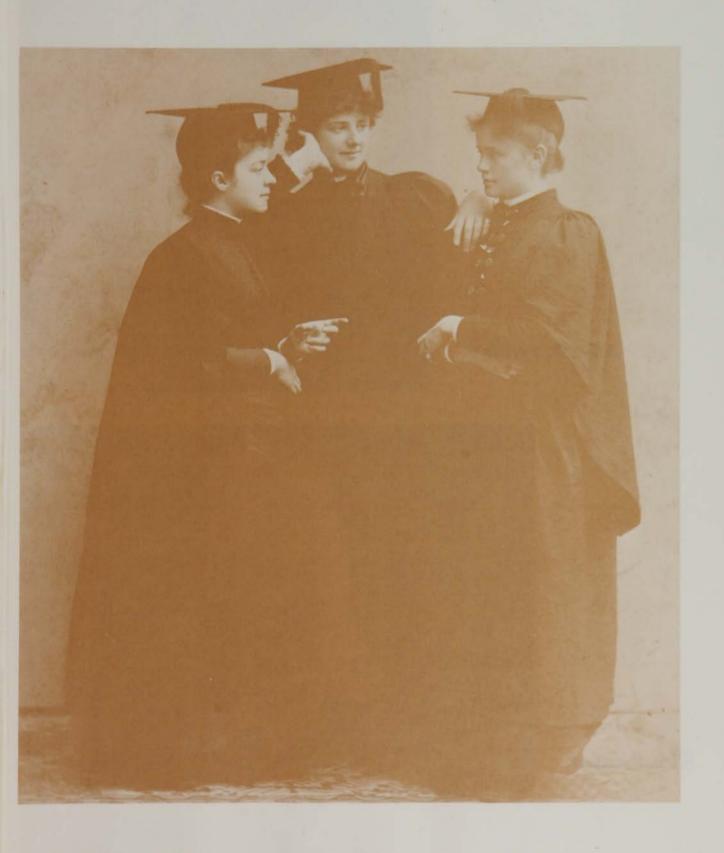

School Song 1891 Mount Vernon Seminary

There are some who Ogontz favor,
And there are others who
To Farmington's fair maidens
Most loyal are and true.
We will own both schools are noble,
Their colors gay and bright;
But we're the staunch defenders
Of Mount Vernon's gold and white.

Through all the years of school life
The golden and the white
Have been to us the symbols
Of all that's dear and bright.
And in after years we'll find them
Aglow with memory's light,
And we'll ever be defenders
Of Mount Vernon's gold and white.

You've all got so much to say, say what you mean, mean what you're thinking, and think anything. Why you must waste your life away. You've got to live for today — then let it go. Only the beginning, only just a start.

How the world appears, depends upon the eyes one uses to view it.

It is hard to understand someone else's problems and the burden of weight they place upon them. We cannot judge their view of life because it is only seen through their eyes.

Marcie Mott

The mountain-moving day is coming.

I say so, yet others doubt.
Only a while the mountain sleeps in the past.
All mountains are moved in fire
Yet you may not believe it.
Oh, man, this alone believe,
All sleeping women
Now will wake and move.

Ellie Eddington, alias Putsy Anne

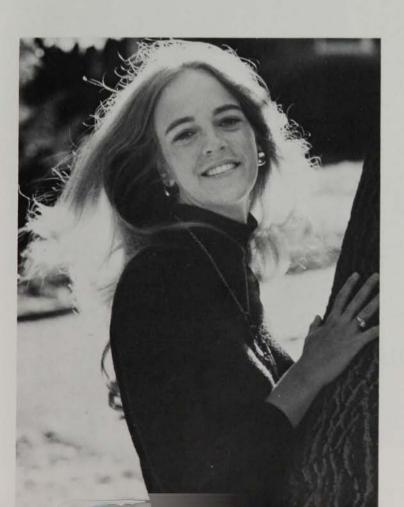

Insanity is often the logic of an accurate mind overtaxed.

Ronnie Bennett

The time has come
I must leave this place.
For I have stayed too long.
I will miss everything here
It has given me happiness,
sadness,
loneliness,
I know not where I will go,
But I must leave.
For the time must come.

Laura Conley

Friends, I will remember you, think of you, pray for you, and when another day is through, I'll still be friends with you.

My saying "and" and "uh" results from my need to answer immediately, to speak without break, as if taking time to think were embarrassing.

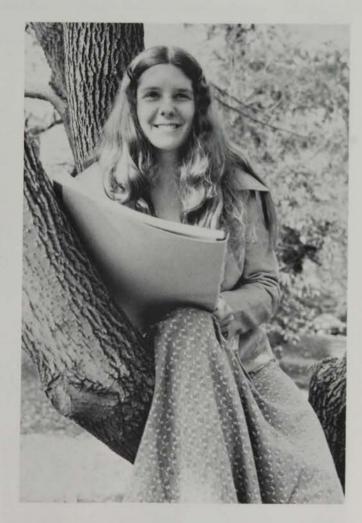

Debbie Rood

What you are is God's gift to you, and what you make of yourself is your gift to God.

Farzana Shoaib

Leigh O'Kelley

Let me not know you for a day —
and leave you with regret —
Let me instead thank the Lord on this home we met —
Let me not understand you for a fleeting moment — then —
Look back and sigh, knowing I can't capture it again . . .
Let me be thankful for the time we shared — the time
we had . . .
Then let me go with the Lord
Too thankful to be sad.

Then —

Household Regulations 1906-1907

Permissions:

Permissions for Saturday morning shopping and for general indoor privileges will be given by the Section teacher or in her absence by the Day Officer.

Callers:

On Friday evenings or on Saturday afternoons pupils may receive calls from relatives or from other persons who bring letters of introduction to the Principals from the parents or guardians.

For Good Form and the Comfort of Others:

Do not walk up and down the sidewalks of any of the school residences; sit or stand so near windows as to be seen from the street; call from windows, from stairs, from room to room, nor up and down the elevator shaft.

Speak in low tones everywhere, and close doors gently.

Health:

Do not rise for study or practice before 6:30 A.M. Take exercise with energy at appointed hours. Each pupil may purchase one-half pound of candy per week.

Order of Rooms:

Turn the gas low before leaving the room. Keep everything in your room in dainty order.

Bathing Regulations

No bath may be taken until two hours after meals.

Leave the bath-tub CLEAN after using it.

Each person must adhere strictly to the bath hours which have been assigned to her.

Please do not use more hot water than may be strictly necessary.

The Mount Vernon Seminary Chevron

All old girls wear the chevron.

On December 15 the chevron shall be awarded to such new girls as shall be selected in the manner described below. A second award of chevrons shall be made on March 15. A third award shall be made on May 15.

Qualifications.

A girl to be adjudged worthy to receive the M.V.S. Chevron

- a. should exhibit a desire to observe the school regulations even though sometimes she may fail to meet them.
- Should manifest a feeling of loyalty to the school, its standards, traditions, and customs.
 - (1) this means, primarily, uprightness.
 - (2) this means a desire to grow in the womanly graces courtesy and gentleness of manner and of speech.
 - (3) this means absolute freedom, at least in her school life, from
 - (a) smoking
 - (b) swearing
 - (c) drinking
 - (d) gambling

(negatively considered this means she should not be a faultfinder and should not habitually criticize adversely the school standards etc.)

Method of selection

- A. All girls who shall not receive more than five negative votes from the girls already wearing the Chevron, shall become candidates for the honor.
- B. All candidates thus recommended who receive the unqualified approval of Mrs. Hensley shall receive the Chevron.
